- (ii) if the co-operative bank has refused to meet any lawful demand made at any of its offices or branches within two working days, if such demand is made at a place where there is an office, branch or agency of the Reserve Bank; or within five working days if such demand is made elsewhere and, in either case, the Reserve Bank certifies in writing that the co-operative bank is unable to pay its debts.
14. (1) Where the Corporation has registered any banking company, Regional Rural Bank or co-operative bank as an insured bank, it shall, within thirty days of its registration, send an intimation in writing to the banking company, Regional Rural Bank or co-operative bank that it has been registered as an insured bank
- (2) Every such intimation shall indicate the manner in which the premium payable by the bank under section 15 may be calculated.
15. (1) Every insured bank shall, so long as it continues to be registered, be liable to pay a premium to the Corporation on its deposits at such rate or rates as may, with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank, be notified by the Corporation, from time to time, to the insured banks and different rates may be notified for different categories of insured banks.²
- Provided that the premium payable by any insured bank for any period shall not exceed fifteen paise per annum for every hundred rupees of the total amount of the deposits in that bank at the end of that period or, where its registration has been cancelled during that period, on the date of its cancellation.
- Provided further that the Corporation may, having regard to its financial position and to the interests of the banking system of the country as a whole, and with previous approval of the Reserve Bank of India, from time to time, raise the aforesaid limit of fifteen paise per annum for every

Intimation of registration

Premium

² Initially, rate of premium was fixed at 5 paise per annum for every hundred rupees of total amount of deposit. The rate was reduced to 4 paise w.e.f. 1-10-1971, again increased to 5 paise and further to 8 paise w.e.f. 1-4-2004, to 10 paise w.e.f. 1-4-2005, and again 12 paise w.e.f. 1-4-2020.

hundred rupees of the total amount of the deposits in that bank;

Provided also that where the registration of any insured bank is cancelled under section 13, or under section 13C such cancellation shall not affect the liability of that bank for payment of premium for the period before such cancellation and of any interest due under the provisions of this section.

- (2) The premium shall be payable for such periods, at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed.³
- (3) If an insured bank makes any default in payment of any amount of premium, it shall, for the period of such default, be liable to pay to the Corporation interest on such amount at such rate not exceeding eight per cent over and above the bank rate, as may be prescribed.⁴

- 15A. (1) The Corporation may cancel the registration of an insured bank if it fails to pay the premium for three consecutive periods:

Provided that no such registration shall be cancelled except after giving to the concerned bank one month's notice in writing calling upon that bank to pay the amount in default.

- (2) The Corporation may restore the registration of a bank whose registration has been cancelled under sub-section (1), if the concerned bank requests the Corporation to restore the registration and pays all the amounts due by way of premia from the date of default till the date of payment together with interest due thereon, on the date of payment.

Provided that the Corporation shall not restore the registration unless it is satisfied, on an inspection of the concerned bank or otherwise that it is eligible to be registered as an insured bank.

16. (1) Where an order for the winding up or liquidation of an insured bank is made, the Corporation shall, subject to the other provisions of this Act, be liable to pay to every depositor of that bank in accordance with the provisions of section 17 an amount equal to the amount due to him in respect of his deposit in that bank at the time when such order is made:

Provided that the liability of the Corporation in respect of an insured bank referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section (13) or clause (a) or clause (b) of section 13C shall be limited to the deposits as on the date of the cancellation of the registration:

Provided further that the total amount payable by the Corporation to any one depositor in respect of his deposit in that bank in the same capacity and Cancellation of registration of an insured bank for non-payment of premium.

Liability of Corporation in respect of insured deposits.

3 Time and manner of payment of premium mentioned under Section 15(2) prescribed under regulation 19 of DICGC General Regulations 1961.

4 Rate of penal interest mentioned under Section 15(3) fixed at 8 per cent above the Bank Rate vide Regulation 20 of DICGC General Regulations 1961.

in the same right shall not exceed one thousand and five hundred rupees.⁵

Provided further that the Corporation may, from time to time, having regard to its financial position and to the interest of the banking system of the country as a whole, raise, with the previous approval of the Central Government, the aforesaid limit of one thousand and five hundred rupees.

- (2) Where in respect of an insured bank a scheme of compromise or arrangement or of reconstruction or amalgamation has been sanctioned by any competent authority and the said scheme provides for each depositor being paid or credited with, on the date on which the scheme comes into force, an amount which is less than the original amount and also the specified amount, the Corporation shall be liable to pay to every such depositor in accordance with the provisions of section 18 an amount equivalent to the difference between the amount so paid or credited and the original amount, or the difference between the amount so paid or credited and the specified amount, whichever is less:

Provided that where any such scheme also provides that any payment made to a depositor before the coming into force of the scheme shall be reckoned towards the payment due to him under that scheme, then the scheme shall be deemed to have provided for that payment being made on the date of its coming into force.

- (3) For the purposes of this section, the amount of a deposit shall be determined after deducting therefrom any ascertained sum of money which the insured bank may be legally entitled, to claim by way of set-off against the depositor in the same capacity and in the same right.
- (4) In this section,

- (a) “original amount” in relation to a depositor means the total amount due by the insured bank immediately before the date of coming into force of the scheme of compromise or arrangement or, as the case may be, of reconstruction or amalgamation to the depositor in respect of his deposit in the bank in the same capacity and in the same right:

Provided that where under the proviso to sub-section (2), the scheme is deemed to have provided for any payment being made on the date of its coming into force, the amount of such payment shall be included in calculating the original amount:

⁵ In exercise of power conferred under Second proviso to section 16 (1), the amount of ₹1,500 raised to ₹5,000 w.e.f. January 1, 1968; ₹10,000 w.e.f. April 1, 1970; ₹20,000 w.e.f. January 1, 1976; ₹30,000 w.e.f. July 1, 1980; ₹1,00,000 w.e.f. May 1, 1993; and ₹5,00,000 w.e.f. February 4, 2020.

- (b) “specified amount” means one thousand and five hundred rupees, or as the case may be, the amount fixed by the Corporation under the third proviso to sub-section (1).

Manner of payment by Corporation in case of winding up of an insured bank.

- 17. (1) Where an insured bank has been ordered to be wound up or to be taken into liquidation and a liquidator, by whatever name called, has been appointed in respect thereof, the liquidator shall, with the least possible delay and in any case not later than three months from the date of his assuming charge of office, furnish to the Corporation a list in such form and manner as may be specified by the Corporation showing separately the deposits in respect of each depositor and the amounts of set-off referred to in sub-section (3) of section 16.
- (2) Before the expiry of two months from the receipt of such list from the liquidator, the Corporation shall pay the amount payable under section 16 in respect of the deposit of each depositor:
 - (a) directly to the depositor, or
 - (b) to the depositor through such agency as the Corporation may determine, or
 - (c) to the liquidator.
- (3) Where the Corporation pays under sub-section (2), any amount in respect of the deposit of a depositor to the liquidator, the liquidator shall pay or cause to be paid that amount to the depositor and any expenses incurred by the liquidator in making such payment shall be treated as expenses incurred in the winding up of the insured bank.

Manner of payment by Corporation in case of scheme of compromise or arrangement or of reconstruction or amalgamation in respect of an insured bank.

- 18. (1) Where a scheme of amalgamation of any insured bank with any other banking institution (hereinafter referred to as the transferee bank) or a scheme of compromise or arrangement or of reconstruction in respect of such bank has been sanctioned and the Corporation has become liable to pay to depositors of the insured bank under sub-section (2) of section 16, the transferee bank where the scheme is of amalgamation and the insured bank in any other case shall, with the least possible delay and in any case not later than three months from the date on which such scheme, takes effect, furnish to the Corporation a list in such form and manner as may be specified by the Corporation and certified to be correct by the chief executive officer of the transferee bank or, as the case may be, of the insured bank showing separately deposits in respect of each depositor and the amounts of set off referred to in sub-section (3) of section 16 and also the amounts paid or credited or deemed to have been paid under the scheme.
- (2) Before the expiry of two months from the receipt of such list, the Corporation shall pay the amount payable under section 16 either directly to the depositor or to the transferee bank or the insured bank for being credited in his account.

18A. (1) Where, in respect of an insured bank,—

10 of 1949

- (i) any direction is issued or any prohibition or order or scheme is made under any of the provisions of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949; and
- (ii) such direction, prohibition, order or scheme provides for restrictions on depositors of such bank from accessing their deposits, then, without prejudice to the provisions of sections 16 to 18, the Corporation shall, on the date on which such direction, prohibition, order or scheme takes effect, become liable to pay to every such depositor an amount equivalent to the amount payable by the Corporation to the depositor under section 16.

Liability of Corporation to make interim payment to depositors of insured bank

- (2) A list showing the outstanding deposits of each depositor of the insured bank, as on the date on which the direction, prohibition, order or scheme referred to in sub-section (1) takes effect, shall be furnished by such insured bank within forty-five days of such date of effect, in such form and manner as may be specified by the Corporation and certified to be correct by the chief executive officer of the insured bank.
- (3) The Corporation shall, within thirty days of the date of receipt of the list under sub-section (2), verify, through an online platform, to the extent possible, or in accordance with such procedure, as may be prescribed, the genuineness and authenticity of the claims made therein, and ascertain the willingness of each depositor to receive the amount due to him out of his deposit in the insured bank.
- (4) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (7), the Corporation shall, before the expiry of fifteen days from the date of completion of the verification under sub-section (3), pay to the depositors who have affirmed their willingness thereunder, the amount payable under sub-section (1) either directly, or get it credited in the account of the depositors through the insured bank:

Provided that the total period of time between the date when the Corporation becomes liable to pay to the depositor and the date of payment to the depositor shall not, subject to the provisions of sub-section (7), exceed ninety days:

Provided further that any amount paid by the insured bank to the depositor during the period between the date on which the direction, prohibition, order or scheme referred to in sub-section (1) takes effect and the date of payment to the depositor, shall be appropriately reckoned by the insured bank before crediting such amount in depositor's account.

- (5) Any amount paid by the Corporation under sub-section (4) in respect of a deposit shall, to the extent of the amount so paid, discharge the insured bank from its liability to the depositor in respect of that deposit, but the insured bank shall become liable to the Corporation in respect of the amount paid by the Corporation.
- (6) Where, in respect of an insured bank,—
- (i) any direction, prohibition, order or scheme under any of the provisions of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 providing for suspension of business of the insured bank is already in force as on the date of commencement of the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation (Amendment) Act, 2021; and
 - (ii) such direction, prohibition, order or scheme provides for restrictions on the amounts to be paid by the insured bank to each of its depositors, then, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Corporation shall, on and from the date of commencement of the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation (Amendment) Act, 2021, become liable to pay to each depositor of such insured bank, an amount equivalent to the amount payable by the Corporation to the depositor under sub-section (1) of section 16, and the time limit specified in sub-sections (2) to (4) herein for such payment shall be computed from that date.
- (7) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) to (6), in cases where,—
- (a) the Reserve Bank finds it expedient in the interest of finalising a scheme of amalgamation of the insured bank with other banking institution or a scheme of compromise or arrangement or of reconstruction in respect of such insured bank, and communicates to the Corporation accordingly, the date on which the Corporation shall become liable to pay every depositor of such insured bank may further be extended by a period not exceeding ninety days;
 - (b) the restrictions on payment to depositors are removed by the Reserve Bank at any time before payment to depositors by the Corporation under sub-section (4), and the insured bank or the transferee bank is in a position to make payments to its depositors on demand without any restrictions, the Corporation shall not be liable to make payment to the depositors of such insured bank.

Discharge of the liability of
Corporation

19. Any amount paid by the Corporation under section 17 or section 18 or section 18A in respect of a deposit shall, to the extent of the amount paid, discharge the Corporation from its liability in respect of that deposit.

20. Where any depositor to whom any payment is to be made in accordance with the provisions of section 17 or section 18 or section 18A cannot be found or is not readily traceable, adequate provision shall be made by the Corporation for such payment and the amount of such provision shall be accounted for separately in its books. Provision for unpaid amounts.
21. (1) Where any amount has been paid under section 17 or section 18 or section 18A or any provision therefor has been made under section 20, the Corporation shall furnish to the liquidator or to the insured bank or to the transferee bank, as the case may be, information as regards the amount so paid or provided for.⁶ Repayment of the amount to Corporation
- (2) On receipt of the information under sub-section (1), notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force, -
- (a) the liquidator shall, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, repay to the Corporation out of the amount, if any payable by him in respect of any deposit such sum or sums as make up the amount paid or provided for by the Corporation in respect of that deposit;
- (b) the insured bank or, as the case may be, the transferee bank, shall, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, repay to the Corporation out of the amount, if any, to be paid or credited in respect of any deposit after the date of the coming into force of the scheme referred to in section 18 or the direction, prohibition, order or scheme referred to in section 18A, such sum or sums as make up the amount paid or provided for by the Corporation in respect of that deposit.
- (3) The Corporation may defer or vary the time limit for receipt of repayments due to it from the insured bank or the transferee bank, as the case may be, for such period and upon such terms, as may be decided by the Board in accordance with the regulations made in this behalf:
- Provided that such regulations shall also provide for prudential principles to assess the capability of the bank to make repayment to the Corporation and for prohibition of specified other classes of liabilities from being discharged by the insured bank or the transferee bank till such time as repayment is made to the Corporation.

⁶ Time and manner of payment of the amount mentioned in Section 21 prescribed under Regulation 22 and 23 of DICGC General Regulations, 1961.

- (4) In case of any delay in repayment to the Corporation beyond the time period prescribed under sub-section (2) or extended under sub-section (3), the Corporation may charge penal interest at a maximum rate of two per cent above the repo rate per annum for the amount to be repaid to the Corporation and such penal interest shall rank equally for priority with the amount to be repaid under sub-section (2).

CHAPTER III-A

CREDIT GUARANTEE FUNCTIONS

Guaranteeing of credit facilities and indemnifying

- 21A. (1) The Corporation may guarantee credit facilities given by any credit institution and may also indemnify credit institutions in respect of credit facilities granted by them.
- (2) The Board may, for the purpose of guaranteeing credit facilities granted by credit institutions, or indemnifying credit institutions, frame one or more schemes in such form and in such manner and containing such provisions as the Board may, from time to time, deem fit.
- (3) The Board may levy, on every credit institution availing itself of the guarantees or indemnities provided by the Corporation, a fee at such rate or rates as may, with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank, be notified by the Corporation to the credit institutions from time to time and different rates may be notified for different categories of credit institutions, for different types of credit facilities, for different areas where the credit facilities are utilised, or for different categories of beneficiaries of the credit facilities.

Explanation - "Credit facility" means any financial assistance, including a loan or advance, cash credit, overdraft, bills purchased or discounted, a term or instalment credit and any guarantee other than a performance guarantee, granted or issued in India by a credit institution at any of its offices in India.

Corporation
to act as an agent of Central Government

- 21B. The Corporation may act as agent for the Central Government -
- (i) in guaranteeing the due performance by any small-scale industrial concern or other institution or undertaking or categories of institutions or undertakings approved by the Central Government in this behalf, of its, or their obligations to any credit institution in respect of loans and advances made or other credit facilities provided to it, or them, by such credit institution, and
- (ii) in making, as such agent, of payments in connection with such guarantee.

CHAPTER IV

 - (b) all amounts received by the Corporation as fees for guarantees and indemnities taken over or given by it;
 - (c) all amounts received by the Corporation in respect of guarantees and indemnities taken over or given by it;
 - (d) all amounts transferred to that Fund from the Deposit Insurance Fund or the General Fund under section 27; and
 - (e) all income arising from the investments made out of that Fund.
- (2) The said Fund shall be applied -
- (a) to make payments in respect of guarantees and indemnities taken over or issued by the Corporation;
 - (b) to meet any liability in respect of the amount referred to in clause (d) of sub-section (1); and

- (c) to meet the whole or any part of the liability on account of depreciation in assets, contributions to staff and superannuation and other funds, or other expenses incurred or to be incurred by the Corporation, as may be decided by the Board.

- General Fund 24. All receipts of the Corporation other than those referred to in sub-section (1) of section 23 or in sub-section (1) of section 23A shall be credited to the General Fund and all payments by the Corporation other than those referred to in sub-section (2) of section 23, or, as the case may be, sub-section (2) of section 23(A) shall be made out of that Fund.
- Investment 25. All moneys belonging to the Deposit Insurance Fund or the Credit Guarantee Fund or the General Fund which may not for the time being be required by the Corporation, shall be invested in promissory notes, stock or securities of the Central Government and all other moneys shall be deposited with Reserve Bank.
- Amount in one Fund may be transferred to the other Fund or may be utilised for other purposes 25A. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Board may -
- (a) transfer any amount from the Deposit Insurance Fund to Credit Guarantee Fund or from the Credit Guarantee Fund to the Deposit Insurance Fund, or
 - (b) utilise any money standing to the credit of either of the said Funds, for such purposes as it may think fit, if it is satisfied that the balance in the Fund, after such transfer or utilization, will be adequate to meet any probable claim on that Fund.
- Advances by Reserve Bank 26. (1) The Reserve Bank shall, from time to time, advance to the Corporation on a request by it such sum or sums as may be required by the Corporation for the purposes of the Deposit Insurance Fund or the Credit Guarantee Fund.
- Provided that the total amount outstanding at any one time on account of such advances shall not exceed five crores of rupees.
- (2) The terms and conditions of any advance under this section shall be such as may be determined by the Reserve Bank with the approval of the Central Government.
- Advances from General Fund to the Deposit Insurance Fund or Credit Guarantee Fund 27. If, at any time, the amount available in the Deposit Insurance Fund or the Credit Guarantee Fund is insufficient to meet the requirements of that Fund, the Corporation may transfer, on such terms and for such period as may be determined by the Board with the approval of the Reserve Bank, from any of the other two Funds, referred to in section 22, such amount as may be necessary to meet the requirements of the Deposit Insurance Fund or the Credit Guarantee Fund, as the case may be.

28. (1) The balance-sheet and accounts of the Corporation shall be prepared and maintained in such form and manner as may be prescribed. Preparation of balance sheet etc. by Corporation
- (2) The Board shall cause the books and accounts of the Corporation to be balanced and closed as on the 31st day of December or such other date in each year as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify;
- Provided that with a view to facilitating the transition from one period of accounting to another period of accounting under this sub-section, the Central Government, may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions as it considers necessary or expedient for the balancing and closing of, or for other matters relating to, the books or accounts in respect of the concerned years.
29. (1) The affairs of the Corporation shall be audited by an auditor duly qualified to act as an auditor under sub-section (1) of section 226 of the Companies Act, 1956, who shall be appointed by the Board with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank and shall receive such remuneration from the Corporation as the Reserve Bank may fix. Audit
- (2) The auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the annual balance-sheet of the Corporation and it shall be his duty to examine it together with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto and he shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the Corporation and shall at all reasonable times have access to the books, accounts and other documents of the Corporation and may, in relation to such accounts, examine any director of the Board or any officer or employee of the Corporation.
- (3) The auditor shall make a report to the Corporation upon the annual balance-sheet and accounts and in every such report he shall state whether in his opinion the balance-sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet containing all necessary particulars and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of affairs of the Corporation and in case he had called for any explanation or information from the Board, whether it has been given and whether it is satisfactory.
- (4) Without prejudice to anything contained in the preceding sub-sections, the Central Government may at any time appoint the Comptroller and Auditor- General of India to examine and report upon the accounts of the Corporation, and any expenditure incurred by him in connection with such examination and report shall be payable by the Corporation to the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.
30. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Income-tax Act, 1961, the Corporation shall not be liable to pay any tax under that Act on any of its income, profits or gains for the accounting year during which the Corporation is established and for fourteen accounting years following that year. Income-tax and Super tax

- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Income-tax Act 1961, the Corporation shall not be liable to pay any tax under that Act on any of its income, profits or gains for the period commencing from the first day of January 1977, and ending with the commencement of the accounting year during which Chapter 11 of the Deposit Insurance Corporation (Amendment and Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1978, comes into force and for that accounting year and eight accounting years following that year.

Reserve Fund

31. After making provision for all its liabilities and for all other matters for which provision is necessary or expedient, including any contribution to the staff and superannuation funds, the Corporation shall transfer the balance, if any, or any of its income in its General Fund to one or more reserve funds to be utilised in such manner and for such purposes as the Corporation may deem fit. 81 of 1985

Annual accounts and reports

32. (1) The Corporation shall furnish to the Reserve Bank within three months from the date on which its accounts are balanced and closed the balance-sheet and accounts together with the auditor's report and a report of the working of the Corporation during the year and copies of the said balance-sheet and accounts and reports shall be furnished by the Corporation to the Central Government.
- (2) The Central Government shall cause every Auditor's report and report of the working of the Corporation to be laid as soon as may be after they are received before each House of Parliament.

CHAPTER V

MISCELLANEOUS

Staff of
Corporation

33. (1) The Corporation may appoint such number of officers and employees as it considers necessary or desirable for the efficient performance of its functions and determine the terms and conditions of their appointment and service.
- (2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), it shall be lawful for the Corporation to utilise, and for the Reserve Bank to make available, the services of such staff of the Reserve Bank on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Corporation and the Reserve Bank.

Returns from
insured banks

34. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Banking Regulation Act, 1949, or any other law for the time being in force, the Corporation may at any time direct an insured bank or a credit institution to furnish to it, within such time as may be specified by the Corporation, such statements and information relating to the deposits in that bank or the credit facilities granted by that credit institution as the case may be, as the Corporation may consider necessary or expedient to obtain for the purposes of this Act.

- (2) The Corporation may, if it considers it expedient and after consulting the Reserve Bank, publish any information obtained by it under this section in such consolidated form as it may think fit.
35. (1) The Corporation shall have free access to all such records of an insured bank or a credit institution, perusal whereof may appear to the Corporation to be necessary for the discharge of its functions under this Act. Corporation to have access to records
- (2) The Corporation may require any insured bank or a credit institution to furnish to it copies of any of the records referred to in sub-section (1) and the bank or the credit institution shall be bound to comply with the requisition.
36. (1) The Corporation may, for any of the purposes of this Act, request the Reserve Bank to cause an inspection of the books and accounts or an investigation of the affairs of an insured bank or a credit institution to be made and on such request the Reserve Bank shall cause such inspection or investigation to be made by one or more of its officers, or through such other person or agency as the Reserve Bank may determine. Inspection of insured banks by Reserve Bank
- (2) The provisions of sub-section (2) and sub-section (3) of section 35 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 shall apply to an inspection or investigation under sub-section (1) as they apply to an inspection under that section. 10 of 1949
- (3) When an inspection or investigation has been made under this section, Reserve Bank shall furnish a copy of its report to the Corporation and neither the bank nor the credit institution, as the case may be inspected or investigated nor any other bank or credit institution shall be entitled to be furnished with a copy of such report.
- (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, no court, tribunal or other authority shall compel the production or disclosure of a report under this section or of information or material gathered during the course of an inspection or investigation under this section.
37. The Corporation shall, on a request in writing from the Reserve Bank, furnish to it within such time as may be specified by the Reserve Bank, such statements and information relating to the business or affairs of the Corporation or of an insured bank as the Reserve Bank may consider necessary or expedient. No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Corporation or the Reserve Bank or any director of the Board or any officer of the Corporation or the Reserve Bank or any other person or agency authorised by the Corporation or the Reserve Bank to discharge any functions under this Act for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act.

43. Nothing in the Companies Act, 1956 or the Insurance Act, 1938, shall apply to the Corporation. Companies Act, 1956 and Insurance Act, 1938 not to apply
44. (1) The Corporation shall not be placed in liquidation save by order of the Central Government and in such manner as the Government may direct. Liquidation of Corporation
- (2) On the liquidation of the Corporation
- (a) the outstanding assets of the Corporation in so far as they relate to the Deposit Insurance Fund shall be distributed among the insured banks in such manner and in such proportion as may be determined by the Central Government having regard to the amounts of premium paid by them during any prescribed period or the deposits of the said banks as on the date of liquidation of the Corporation or other relevant circumstances;
- (b) the remaining outstanding assets of the Corporation shall be transferred to the Reserve Bank.
45. In the discharge of its functions under this Act, the Corporation shall be guided by such directions in matters of policy involving public interest as the Central Government may after consulting the Reserve Bank give to it in writing, and if any question arises whether the direction relates to a matter of policy involving public interest, the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final. Power of Central Government to give directions
46. Any dispute as to the amount of premium due from any insured bank shall be decided by the Central Government and the decision of that Government shall be final. Dispute as to amount of premium
47. (1) Whoever in any return, balance-sheet, or other document or in any information required or furnished by or under or for the purposes of any provision of this Act, willfully makes a statement which is false in any material particular, knowing it to be false, or willfully omits to make a material statement, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years and shall also be liable to fine. Penalties
- (2) If any person fails to produce any book, account or other document, or to furnish any statement or information which under the provisions of this Act, it is his duty to produce or furnish, he shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to two thousand rupees in respect of each offence and in the case of a continuing failure, with an additional fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day during which the failure continues after conviction for the first such failure.

companies

48. (1) Where an offence has been committed by a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly :

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any gross negligence on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

- (b) “director” in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm and in relation to a co-operative society includes any member of a committee of management or other managing body (by whatever name called) to which the management of the affairs of the bank is entrusted.

Cognizance and trial of offences

49. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, no court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act except upon a complaint, in writing, made by an officer of the Corporation, generally or specially authorised in writing in this behalf by the Board, and no court, inferior to the Court of a Metropolitan Magistrate or a Judicial Magistrate of the first class, shall try any such offence.

2 of 1974

- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, a Magistrate may, if he sees reason so to do, dispense with the personal attendance of the officer of the Corporation filing the complaint, but the Magistrate may, in his discretion, at any stage of the proceedings, direct the personal attendance of the complainant.

Regulations
66 of 1988

50. (1) The Board may, with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank, by notification in the Official Gazette, make regulations not inconsistent with this Act to provide for all matters for which provision is necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

- (2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for -
- (a) the times and places of the meetings of the Board or of any committee constituted under this Act and the procedure to be followed at such meetings including the quorum necessary for the transaction of business;
 - (b) the number of directors constituting an Executive committee, and the functions that such committee shall discharge;
 - (c) the functions which any other committee may discharge under this Act;
 - (d) the fees and allowances that may be paid to the members of a committee other than directors of the Board;
 - (e) the fees and allowances that may be paid to the directors of the Board;

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTORY

1. These Regulations may be called the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation General Regulations, 1961. Short title
2. In the Regulations, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, -
 - (a) “The Act” means the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation Act, 1961; Definitions
 - (b) “Director” means Director of the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation;
 - (c) Other expressions used and not defined in these Regulations but used in the Act have the meaning respectively assigned to them in the Act.

CHAPTER II

OBLIGATIONS OF DIRECTORS

3. (i) Every director who is directly or indirectly concerned or interested in any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Corporation shall disclose the nature of his interest at the meeting of the Board at which the contract or arrangement is determined on, if his interest then exists, or in any other case at the next meeting of the Board after the acquisition of his interest or the making of the contract or arrangement. No Director to deal with matters with which he is personally concerned
 - (ii) No director shall vote on any contract or arrangement in which he is directly or indirectly concerned or interested and if he does his vote shall not be counted.
4. A director nominated under clause (d) or under clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 6 of the Act shall, as soon as may be, inform the Board when he becomes subject to any of the disqualifications set out in the Act. Obligation of Director to give information of disqualifications
5. The Board shall forthwith inform the Central Government, if it comes to the notice of the Board, that any director has become subject to any of the disqualifications specified in section 6 of the Act. Board to inform Central Government regarding disqualifications

CHAPTER III

MEETINGS OF THE BOARD AND COMMITTEES

- Meetings of the Board
Section 7
6. (i) The Board shall ordinarily meet once a quarter in each year
- (ii) Meetings of the Board shall be convened by the Chairman and shall be ordinarily held at Bombay but if so directed by the Board, may be held at any other place in India.
- Section 50
(2) (a)
- (iii) Ordinarily not less than one clear fortnight's notice shall be given of each meeting of the Board and such notice shall be sent to every director to his registered address. Should it be found necessary to convene an emergency meeting, sufficient notice shall be given to every director, who is at that time in India, to enable him to attend.
- (iv) No business other than that for which the meeting was convened shall be discussed at a meeting of the Board, except with the consent of the Chairman of the meeting and a majority of the directors present, unless one clear week's notice has been given of the same in writing to the Chairman.
- (v) Three directors of whom one shall be a director nominated under clause (d) or under clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 6 shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.
- (vi) A copy of the proceedings of each meeting of the Board shall be circulated for the information of the Directors as soon as possible after the meeting and the minutes of each meeting shall be signed by the Chairman of that or the next succeeding meeting.
- Resolution without meeting of Board valid
7. A resolution in writing circulated to all the directors in India and signed by a majority of such directors who are then in India, one of whom shall be the Chairman or a director nominated by the Reserve Bank, shall be valid and effectual and shall be deemed to be the resolution so passed by the Board on the date on which it is signed by the last signatory to the resolution.
- Provided that if any dissenting director requires in writing that any resolution so passed shall be placed before a meeting of the Board, the resolution shall not be deemed to be valid and effectual as aforesaid, unless the same is passed at such meeting.
- The Executive Committee
Section 8 and 50 (2) (a) and (b)
8. (i) The executive Committee of the Corporation shall consist of the Chairman and the director nominated under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 6 of the Act and one of the directors nominated either under clause (d) or under clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 6 of the Act as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

Provided that any director, who may be present in the town in which a meeting of the Executive Committee is held may attend such meeting and such director shall be deemed to be a member of the Executive Committee for the meeting which he so attends.

- (ii) The Executive Committee shall meet once in each quarter or at such other times at Bombay or at such other place as the Chairman may specify. Sufficient notice shall be given to the members of the Executive Committee to enable them to attend its meetings.
 - (iii) Any two of the directors referred to in sub-regulation (i) above shall form a quorum for the transaction of business by the Executive Committee.
 - (iv) A resolution in writing and circulated to the three directors of the Executive Committee referred to in sub-regulation (i) and approved by any two of them shall be valid and effectual and shall be deemed to be the resolution passed by the Executive Committee on the date on which it is signed by the last signatory to the resolution.
 - (v) The provisions of the Act, and save as otherwise provided in the regulation, these regulations shall apply to the meetings of the Executive Committee as if they were meetings of the Board.
9. (i) The Board may appoint ad hoc Committees to assist the Corporation in the efficient discharge of its functions. Appointment of ad hoc Committees
- (ii) A person who is a member of an ad hoc Committee who is directly or indirectly interested in any contract or arrangement which comes up before such ad hoc Committee shall disclose the nature of his interest to the Board and to such ad hoc Committee and shall not be present at any meeting of the ad hoc Committee when such contract or arrangement is being discussed, unless his presence is required by the other members of the Committee for the purpose of eliciting information. When any member is so required to be present, he shall not vote on any such contract or arrangement and if he does so, his vote shall not be counted. Section 8(3)
Section 50
(2) (c)
- (iii) Every member of an ad hoc Committee shall, before entering upon his duties, be required to sign a declaration of fidelity and secrecy on the lines of the form set out in the first schedule to the Act.
- (iv) The quorum for a meeting of an ad hoc Committee shall be one-third of its strength (any fraction contained in that one-third being rounded off as one) or two members, whichever is higher.
- (v) The provisions of the Act and save as otherwise provided in this Regulation, these Regulations shall apply to meetings of an ad hoc Committee as if they were meetings of the Board.

CHAPTER V

INSURED BANKS

113 of 2003 19. (1) An insured bank shall pay to the Corporation premium at the rate notified by the Corporation from time to time for each of the half-yearly periods ending on the last day of March and September in every year. Such premium shall be paid in advance on the basis of the total deposits as at the close of the business on the last day of the preceding half-year or if that day be a public holiday under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, the preceding working day. The advance payment towards the premium due in respect of each half-year shall be made as soon as possible after the commencement of the half-year but in any event not later than the last day of the second month of that half-year.

Payment of premium by an insured bank

Section 15(2) and Section 50(2) (f)

Provided that where a bank is registered as an insured bank after the first day of a half-year, the first premium payable by such bank in respect of that half-year shall be an amount bearing to the premium, which would have been payable by that bank in respect of the half-year in which it was registered had it been registered at the commencement of such half-year, the same proportion as the number of days in that half-year from the date of such registration to the end of the half-year bears to the total number of days in that half-year, and such premium shall be paid within thirty days of the receipt by that bank of the intimation under section 14 of the Act.

Provided further that in the case of a new banking company the premium payable by it in respect of the first half-year shall be arrived at on the basis of one half of the maximum estimated deposits mentioned by such new banking company in its application to the Reserve Bank for a license to commence banking business under section 22 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949.

- (2) The actual premium payable by an insured bank in respect of a half-year shall be determined on the basis of its total deposits as on the last day of the preceding half-year.

Provided that where the registration of an insured bank has been cancelled, the actual premium payable by such bank in respect of the period in a half-year up to the date of such cancellation shall be determined on the basis of the deposits outstanding on the date of cancellation of its registration as an insured bank.

- (3) Every insured bank shall, as soon as possible after the commencement of each calendar half-year but in any event not later than the last day of the second month of that half-year, furnish to the Corporation a statement, in duplicate, duly certified as correct by two officials authorised by it, in such form as may be specified by the Corporation showing the basis on which the premium payable by that bank has been calculated and the amount of premium payable by that bank to the Corporation for that half-year.

Provided that if any insured bank is not able, on account of circumstances beyond its control, to determine the figure of its total deposits referred in sub-regulation (1), it may provisionally calculate the amount of premium payable by it to the Corporation on the basis of its total deposits as at the close of business on the penultimate day of the preceding half-year or if that day is a public holiday under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, the preceding working day and pay the half-yearly premium payable by it accordingly subject to adjustment, if any, being made on the figure of its total deposits referred to in sub-regulation (1) as soon as possible thereafter but in any event not later than such date as may be specified by the Corporation from time to time.

- (4) If at any time after payment of the premium payable to the Corporation for any period it is found that the insured bank has paid a sum less than the sum payable by it either on account of an error in the calculation made by it or on account of an error in the figures furnished by it or otherwise, the insured bank shall be liable to pay immediately to the Corporation such additional sum as may be due on account of the error in calculation or in the figures or otherwise, with interest, if any, payable under Regulation 20.

- 113 of 1993 20. If an insured bank does not pay on or before the stipulated date the premium payable by it, or any portion thereof it shall be liable to pay interest on the amount of premium payable by it or on the unpaid portion thereof, as the case may be, at 8 per cent above the Bank Rate from the beginning of the financial half-year till the date of payment.
21. The Corporation may at any time waive any payment due to it by way of interest on such conditions and for such period or periods as it may deem fit.
- 21A. (1) The insured bank, while furnishing the list and the certification under sub-section (2) of section 18A, shall submit in such form as specified by the Corporation, the name and account details of depositors who have affirmed their willingness to receive the insured amount in respect of their deposit in the insured bank, and that form shall also contain a declaration signed by the chief executive officer/the person in charge as to the correctness of the contents thereof along with a confirmation as to availability of the declarations signed and submitted by the depositors, and an undertaking to preserve and submit the said declarations to the Corporation, within such time and in such manner as specified by the Corporation.
- (2) The insured bank shall obtain willingness of the depositors in such form as may be specified by the Corporation, which shall necessarily include an express declaration of willingness signed by the depositor to receive the insured amount along with a certification by the chief executive officer/the person in charge as to the correctness of the contents thereof, and the forms so obtained shall be submitted to the Corporation within such time and in such manner specified by the Corporation.
- (3) Where the insured bank receives willingness of a depositor after submission of the Form under sub-regulation (1) but within the period specified in the first proviso to sub-section (4) of section 18A, it shall submit the details thereof in the same format specified under sub-
- Payment of interest on overdue premium
Section 15(3) Section 50(2)(g)
Waiver of interest due to the Corporation
Claim submission procedure regulation (1) within such time and in such manner specified by the Corporation in the same format specified under sub-regulation (1).

- (4) The claim settlement procedure adopted by the Corporation with the approval of the Board, for verifying the genuineness and authenticity of the claim made by the liquidator under section 17 and the transferee/insured bank under section 18 shall mutatis mutandis be applied for verification of the genuineness and authenticity of the -
- (a) claim made in the list furnished by the insured bank under sub-section (2) of section 18A; and
 - (b) the forms and declarations referred to in sub-regulations (1), (2) and (3), for ascertaining the willingness of the depositor.

Repayment to the Corporation
Section 21(2)
Section
50(2)(h)

22. The amounts repayable to the Corporation under sub-section (2) of section 21 of the Act shall be paid from time to time by, -
- (a) the liquidator as soon as the realisations and other amounts in his hands, after making provision for expenses payable by that time, are sufficient to enable him to declare a dividend of not less than one paisa in the Rupee to each depositor.
 - (b) the insured bank or the transferee bank, as the case may be, as soon as the realisations and other amounts in its hands, after making provision for expenses payable by that time in respect of such realisations or other amounts in its hands are sufficient to enable it after the date of coming into force of the scheme referred to in section 18 of the Act, to pay or credit in respect of each depositor a sum not less than one paisa in the Rupee.

Repayment time period

- 22A. 1. Notwithstanding anything contained in Regulation 22, where the Corporation is satisfied about the financial position of the insured bank or the transferee bank, as the case may be, and keeping in view the expected time period that would be sufficient to generate cash flows, capital infusion, liquidity, business profits, sale of assets, restructuring of the insured bank, to pay the stakeholders including uninsured depositors and other creditors, makes an assessment that the bank is not capable of making repayment to the Corporation, then it may defer or vary the time limit for receipt of repayments due to it for such period and upon such terms as the Board may specifically decide.
2. The decision of the Board referred in sub-regulation (1) shall be binding on the bank and till such time as repayment is made to the Corporation, the insured bank or the transferee bank, as the case may be, shall be prohibited from discharging the classes of liabilities, other than those specified in terms of the decision of the Board.

3. The Corporation may, for the purpose of assessment of the financial position and the capability of the bank to make repayment, call upon the bank, from time to time or periodically, to submit such records or statements and furnish such information as the Corporation considers it necessary and expedient and the bank shall comply with the same.

23. Any amount payable to the Corporation on account of premium or interest or otherwise may be paid into the Reserve Bank of India, Bombay or remitted to the Corporation by crossed cheque, crossed demand draft or telegraphic transfer in favour of the Corporation and payable at Bombay and drawn on the Reserve Bank of India, Bombay or an office in Bombay of an insured bank.
