

RBI Appeal to Tax Payers

February 25, 2003

To avoid long queues and inconveniences for payment of income tax (IT) at the Reserve Bank counters, the Reserve Bank of India has appealed to the tax payers to utilise the services available at various branches of public sector banks in Mumbai and Navi Mumbai and deposit their income tax dues well in advance of the last date.

Income Tax Assesseees can now pay advance income tax at any of the 820 branches of public sector banks and HDFC Bank at Mumbai and Navi Mumbai. The designated branches are authorised by the Income Tax Department to accept payment of income tax dues. Assesseees are advised to take advantage of these standing arrangements made for their convenience.

P. V. Sadanandan
Manager

Press Release : 2002-03/887