RBI releases six-monthly Report on Forex Reserves

The Reserve Bank of India has today placed on its website, the eighth report on management of foreign exchange reserves with reference to March 31, 2007.

It may be recalled that in February 2004, the Reserve Bank had commenced a process of compiling half-yearly reports and placing them in the public domain with a lag of about three months for bringing about more transparency and also for enhancing the level of disclosure. The first such report with reference to September 30, 2003 was released on February 3, 2004.
