I. Preliminary

A. Introduction

1. Lending to counterparties who are related or connected to the lender either through ownership stake in the lender or through their ability to control and influence the lending decisions may prove to be detrimental to the interests of the lender and other stakeholders. Globally, there are regulations on such related party lending and transactions which might create a conflict of interest or moral hazard for the lenders.
2. These Directions have been set out to lay down the revised regulatory guidelines for All India Financial Institutions (AIFIs), comprehensively addressing the above concerns in a harmonised manner. These Directions also have the objectives of ensuring prudence while allowing operational flexibility to lenders when they lend to their related parties.

B. Powers Exercised, Short Title and Commencement

3. The Reserve Bank being satisfied that it is necessary and expedient in the public interest to do so, hereby issues the Directions hereinafter specified. These Directions have been issued by the Reserve Bank in exercise of powers conferred to it under Section 45 L of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.
4. These Directions shall be called the Reserve Bank of India (All India Financial Institutions – Lending to Related Parties) Directions, 2025, and shall come into effect from April 1, 2026.

C. Scope of Application

These Directions shall apply to AIFIs, with regard to lending by an AIFI to a 'related party' and any contract or arrangement entered into by an AIFI with a 'related party':

5. Application to prior loans – With a view to ensuring non-disruptive implementation of these Directions, AIFIs are permitted to let their existing related party transactions which are not in conformity with these Directions as on the date of issuance of the Directions to run-off till maturity, or one year from the date of issue of these Directions, whichever is earlier. However, AIFIs are precluded from renewing such loans/ limits after their expiry or enhancing the limits sanctioned prior to the date of these Directions, unless they are in compliance with these Directions.

D. Definitions

6. In these Directions, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall apply:
- a) 'Committee on lending to related parties' shall mean a committee established by the Board of the AIFI specifically to deal with lending to related parties.

II. General Principles on Lending to Related Parties

This Section sets out general principles and procedures to be followed for prudent risk management of loan to related parties, wherever allowed.

E. Provisions in the Credit Policy

7. The Board shall have the overall responsibility of ensuring that suitable mechanisms are put in place for implementation of the policy on lending to related parties by the AIFIs.
8. The credit policy (hereinafter called the policy) of an AIFI, as required in terms of the extant directions, shall contain specific provisions relating to 'lending to related parties' in accordance with the provisions of these Directions. The policy shall prescribe, inter alia, additional safeguards to address the risks emanating from lending to related parties.
9. The policy shall also have specific provisions for lending to senior officers of the AIFIs and their relatives.
10. Further, the policy shall:
 - a) as a part of the whistleblowing mechanism, encourage employees to communicate confidentially and without the risk of reprisal, legitimate concerns about illegal, unethical, or questionable loans to related parties; and
 - b) eliminate quid pro quo arrangements, if any.
11. The policy shall specify aggregate limits for loans towards related parties. Within this aggregate limit, there shall be sub-limits for loans to a single related party and a group of related parties. These limits shall be well within the extant prudential exposure limits prescribed by the Reserve Bank.

F. Materiality Threshold

12. Loans to related parties can be extended by the AIFIs in terms of their credit policy. Such loans, including personal loans to directors and KMPs, shall be subject to a materiality threshold. While AIFIs are free to lay down their own materiality threshold, the same shall not be higher than the following ceilings:

Asset Size in ₹ crore	Materiality Threshold Ceilings
> 10,00,000	₹50 crore
≥ 1,00,000 to up to 10,00,000	₹10 crore
Less than 100,000	₹5 crore

Provided further that “Loans and advances” will not include loans or advance against-

- (i) Loans and advances to a director and a KMP against government securities, life insurance policies or fixed deposit.
- (ii) Personal³ loans and advances to an employee director, which the employee director would have been eligible to borrow as an employee, subject to applicable prudential limits/LTV ratios as the case may be.

13. Materiality thresholds may vary for different categories of loan to related parties and borrowers as per an AIFI’s policy.

14. All loans above the prescribed materiality threshold shall be sanctioned by Board of the AIFIs. However, AIFIs at its discretion, may delegate the above powers of lending beyond the materiality threshold to a Committee of the Board (hereafter called Committee). As regards loans below the materiality threshold, the same can be sanctioned by appropriate authority in terms of powers delegated to them.

G. Recusal of Interested Parties

15. Directors, or KMP, whether a member of the Committee or not, with a direct or indirect interest in loans to related parties shall recuse themselves from deliberations and decision-making processes involving sanction, disbursement and management of loans to related parties, including one-time settlements, write-offs, waivers, enforcement of security, implementation of resolution plans, etc.

³ Personal loans as defined under Banking Statistics \(Harmonised Definitions\).

H. Monitoring of Loans to Related Parties

16. AIFIs shall put in place suitable mechanism for recording and periodically updating the list of related parties. Periodic reviews shall be conducted at quarterly or shorter intervals by internal auditors to check, inter alia, whether guidelines and procedures in relation to such loans are being strictly adhered to or not.
17. Any deviation from the policy relating to lending to related parties shall be reported to the Audit Committee of the Board.
18. Any product, entity or structure formed with the objective of circumventing these Directions through various means, such as reciprocal lending or quid pro quo arrangements, and identified as such by the auditors of the AIFIs or by the supervisory authority and investigating agencies shall always be treated as lending to related party.

I. Role of Statutory Auditor

19. Statutory auditors shall examine representative samples of loans to related parties of the AIFIs with a view to satisfying themselves that the processes and procedures laid down in these Directions have been complied with. All exposures to related parties which are group entities of the AIFIs shall invariably be examined by the statutory auditor.

J. Declaration of Loans

20. Directors, and KMP shall give an annual declaration about all loans availed by them and their associated entities from the respective AIFIs.

Statutory Restriction

- K. AIFIs are governed by their respective statutes and the RBI Act 1934. They shall be guided by statutory prohibition on lending to their related parties as prescribed in their governing statutes.

III. Supervisory Reporting, Disclosures, Penalty and Repeal

M. Reporting to Supervisors

21. AIFIs shall report to the Reserve Bank of India, through DAKSH portal on a semi-annual basis:

- a) Details of loans sanctioned and contracts awarded to, and arrangements made with related parties in the format provided in Appendix 1; and
- b) any non-compliance with instructions contained in these Directions.

N. Disclosures

22. AIFIs shall also disclose the information on loans to related parties and details of contract and arrangement with them in their notes to financial statements. At a minimum, the information shall include following information for the last two years:

- a) the aggregate value of outstanding loans to related parties;
- b) the outstanding loans to related parties as a proportion of total credit exposure;
- c) the aggregate value of outstanding loans to related parties which are categorized as Special Mention Accounts (SMAs) and Non-Performing Assets (NPAs);
- d) the outstanding loans to related parties which are categorized as SMAs and NPAs as a proportion of total SMAs and NPAs, respectively; and amount of provisions held in respect of loans to related parties;
- e) Top 10 exposures to related parties, where exposure shall include loans and advances, non-fund-based facilities, investments and positive Mark-To-Market (MTM) values of derivative and values of contracts and arrangements with the related party.

O. Penalty

23. Any non-compliance with and circumvention of these Directions shall result in imposition of penalty as deemed appropriate by the Reserve Bank. These penalties may include imposition of monetary penalty, requirement of full provisioning, directions to conduct staff accountability exercises, forensic audits, restrictions and other supervisory and enforcement actions as deemed fit.

P. Repeal

24. Circular that will be repealed on issuance of these Directions is given in Appendix 2.
