Chapter I - Preliminary

A. Short Title and Commencement

1. These Directions shall be called the Reserve Bank of India (Payments Banks – Cash Reserve Ratio and Statutory Liquidity Ratio) Directions, 2025.
2. These Directions shall come into force with immediate effect.

B. Applicability

3. These Directions shall be applicable to Payments Banks (hereinafter collectively referred to as 'banks' or 'PBs' and individually as a 'bank' or 'PB').
4. The maintenance of Cash Reserve Ratio (CRR) shall be reported to the RBI under the statutory return Form A.
5. The maintenance of Statutory Liquidity Ratio (SLR) shall be reported to the RBI under the statutory return Form VIII.

C. Definitions

6. In these Directions, unless the context otherwise requires, the terms herein shall bear the meaning assigned to them below:

- (1) 'Aggregate Deposits' shall mean aggregation of demand and time deposits.
- (2) 'Apportionment of Saving Bank Account into demand liability and time liability': a bank shall undertake the apportionment of Saving Bank Account into demand liability and time liability as per the following procedure:
 - (i) A bank is required to calculate the proportion of its savings bank deposits as at the close of business on March 31 and September 30, into demand and time liabilities in terms of Regulation 7 of The Reserve Bank of India Scheduled Banks' Regulations, 1951.

- (ii) The average of the minimum balances maintained (in each account) in each of the months during the half year period shall be treated by the bank as the amount representing the "time liability" portion of the savings bank deposits. When such an amount is deducted from the average of the actual balances maintained during the half year period, the difference would represent the "demand liability" portion.
- (iii) The proportions of demand and time liabilities so obtained for each half year shall be applied for arriving at demand and time liabilities components of savings bank deposits for all reporting fortnights during the next half year.
- (3) 'Approved Securities/SLR securities': Following securities shall be considered as approved securities (approved securities are commonly known as SLR securities):
- (i) Dated securities of the Government of India issued from time to time under the market borrowing programme and the Market Stabilization Scheme;
 - (ii) Treasury Bills of the Government of India;
 - (iii) ¹State Development Loans (SDLs) of the State Governments issued from time to time under the market borrowing programme.
 - (iv) Any other instrument as may be notified by the Reserve Bank of India (as and when prescribed).

Explanation:

- (a) For Form A Return and its Annex, a bank should report the total investment in approved securities as per its investment book i.e. including encumbered securities.
- (b) For SLR purpose, only unencumbered portion of investment in approved securities would qualify as specified SLR assets. The following SLR securities, however, shall not be considered as encumbered securities for SLR purpose and hence they will also qualify as specified SLR asset:
 - i. Securities lodged with another institution for an advance or any other credit arrangement to the extent to which such securities have not been drawn against or availed of;
 - ii. Securities offered as collateral to the Reserve Bank for availing liquidity assistance from Marginal Standing Facility (MSF) up to the permissible percentage of the total Net Demand and Time Liabilities (NDTL) in India, carved out of the required SLR portfolio of the bank

concerned ;

(18) 'Marginal standing facility' shall mean the facility under which the eligible banks can avail liquidity support from the Reserve Bank against excess SLR holdings. Additionally, they can also avail overnight liquidity by dipping into their stipulated SLR, up to a certain percent of their respective NDTL outstanding at the last day of the second preceding fortnight. The rate of interest under MSF will be above the LAF repo rate, as decided by the RBI from time to time.

(19) 'Market borrowing programme' shall mean the domestic rupee loans raised by the Government of India and the State Governments from the public and managed by the Reserve Bank through issue of marketable securities, governed by the provisions of the Government Securities Act, 2006, Public Debt Act, 1944 and the Regulations framed under those Acts, through an auction or any other method, as specified in the notification issued in this regard.

² Amended with effect from December 15, 2025 vide Reserve Bank of India (Payment Banks – Cash Reserve Ratio and Statutory Liquidity Ratio) (Amendment) Directions, 2025 dated December 11, 2025

(20) 'Net balance in current accounts' shall have the same meaning assigned in explanation (c) to Section 18 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949.

(21) 'Other Approved Securities' shall mean Government Securities, other than the securities mentioned in paragraph 6(3) above, subject to the condition that they are notified as approved securities.

(22) 'Other Demand and Time Liabilities (ODTL)' shall include the following:

(i) Interest accrued on deposits, bills payable, unpaid dividends, suspense account balances representing amounts due to other banks or public, net credit balances in branch adjustment account, and any amounts due to the banking system which are not in the nature of deposits or borrowing.

(ii) The balance outstanding in the blocked account pertaining to segregated outstanding credit entries for more than five years in inter-branch adjustment account, the margin money on bills purchased / discounted and gold borrowed by banks from abroad. The conversion rate of gold into rupees is to be done by crossing the London AM fixing for Gold/USD rate with the rupee-dollar reference rate announced by Financial Benchmarks India Private Limited (FBIL).

(iii) Borrowings through instruments qualifying for Upper Tier 2 and Tier 2 capital.

Explanation:

(a) Such liabilities may arise due to items like collection of bills on behalf of other banks, interest due to other banks and so on. If a bank cannot segregate the liabilities to the banking system from the total of ODTL, the entire ODTL may be shown against item II(c) 'Other Demand and Time Liabilities' of the Return in Form 'A'.

(b) Cash collaterals received under collateralised derivative transactions should be included in the bank's NDTL for the purpose of reserve requirements as these are in the nature of 'outside liabilities'. Interest accrued on deposits should be calculated on each reporting fortnight (as per the interest calculation methods applicable to various types of accounts) so that the bank's liability in this regard is fairly reflected in the total NDTL of the same fortnightly return.

(23) 'Scheduled Bank' means a bank included in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

(24) 'State Co-operative Bank' shall mean the Principal Co-operative Society in a State, the primary object of which is the financing of other Co-operative Societies in the State:

Provided that in addition to such Principal Society in a State, or where there is no such Principal Society in a State, the State Government may declare any one or more Co-operative Societies carrying on business in that State to be also or to be a State Co-operative Bank or State Co-operative Banks within the meaning of this definition;

(25) 'Time Deposits' shall mean deposits other than demand deposits.

(26) 'Time Liabilities' of a bank shall include those liabilities which are payable otherwise than on demand and shall include the following:

- (i) fixed deposits,
- (ii) cash certificates,
- (iii) cumulative and recurring deposits,
- (iv) time liabilities portion of savings bank deposits,
- (v) staff security deposits,
- (vi) margin held against letters of credit, if not payable on demand,
- (vii) deposits held as securities for advances which are not payable on demand,
- (viii) gold deposits.

(27) All other expressions unless defined herein shall have the same meaning as have been assigned to them under the Banking Regulation Act or the Reserve Bank of India Act, or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereto or as used in commercial parlance, as the case may be.

Chapter II - Cash Reserve Ratio (CRR)

A. Cash Reserve Ratio (CRR)

7. Every PB shall maintain in India by way of cash reserve, a sum equivalent to such percent of the total of its NDTL in India, in such manner and for such dates, as the Reserve Bank in terms of Section 42(1) of the RBI Act, 1934 and Section 18(1) of BR Act, 1949, may specify, by notification in the Official Gazette, from time to time having regard to the needs of securing the monetary stability in the country.

B. Incremental CRR

8. In terms of Section 42(1A) of RBI Act, 1934, the Reserve Bank may require the scheduled banks to maintain, in addition to the balances prescribed under Section 42(1) of the Act, an additional average daily balance, the amount of which shall not be less than the rate specified by the Reserve Bank in the notification published in the Gazette of India from time to time.

Provided that such additional balance shall be calculated with reference to the excess of the total of NDTL of the bank as shown in the Returns referred to in Section 42(2) of the RBI Act, 1934 over the total of its NDTL at the close of the business on the date specified in the notification.

C. Maintenance of CRR

9. Every PB shall maintain in India with the Reserve Bank, an average daily balance, the amount of which shall not be less than 3.75 per cent, 3.5 per cent, 3.25 per cent and 3.0 per cent of its NDTL, as on the last day of the second preceding fortnight, effective from the reporting fortnight beginning September 6, October 4, November 1 and November 29, 2025, respectively.

D. Maintenance of Minimum CRR on Daily Basis

10. Every PB shall maintain minimum CRR of not less than 90 percent of the required CRR on all days during the reporting fortnight, in such a manner that the average of CRR maintained daily shall not be less than the CRR prescribed by the Reserve Bank.

E. Computation of Net Demand and Time Liabilities (NDTL)

11. NDTL of a bank includes (a) liabilities towards the banking system net of assets with the banking system as defined in Section 42 of the RBI Act, 1934 for PBs (b) liabilities towards others in the form of demand and time deposits or borrowings or other miscellaneous items of liabilities.

12. For the purpose of these Directions, the Reserve Bank may specify from time to time with reference to any transaction or class of transactions that such transaction or transactions shall be regarded as liability in India of a bank.

13. If any question arises as to whether any transaction or transactions shall be regarded, for the purpose of these Directions, as liability in India of a bank, the bank shall approach the RBI. The decision of the Reserve Bank thereon shall be final.

14. Loans / borrowings from abroad by banks in India shall be reckoned as 'liabilities to others' and shall be subject to reserve requirements. On the other hand, lending to banks abroad will not be considered as assets with the banking system and hence will not be allowed to be netted out from inter-bank liabilities.

15. Upper Tier II instruments raised and maintained in India / abroad shall be reckoned as liability for the computation of NDTL for the purpose of reserve requirements.

16. The balance amount in respect of the drafts issued by the accepting bank on its correspondent bank under the Remittance Facilities Scheme and remaining unpaid shall be reckoned as 'Liability to others in India' for the computation of NDTL. The amount received by correspondent banks shall be reckoned as 'Liability to the Banking System' and this liability may be netted off by the correspondent banks against the inter-bank assets.

17. Sums placed by banks for issuing drafts / interest / dividend warrants shall be treated as 'Assets with banking system' and banks shall have the option to net them off from their inter-bank liabilities.

18. The calculation of the proportion of demand liabilities and time liabilities by PBs in respect of their savings bank deposits on the basis of the position as at the close of business on 30th September and 31st March every year shall continue with interest application on savings bank deposits on a daily product basis.

F. Liabilities not to be included for NDTL computation.

19. The liabilities mentioned below shall not form part of liabilities of a bank for the purpose of CRR and SLR:

(1) Paid up capital, reserves, borrowings through instruments qualifying for Tier 1 and additional Tier 1 capital; any credit balance in the Profit & Loss Account of the bank, amount of any loan / refinance taken from RBI, Exim Bank, NHB, NABARD, NaBFID and SIDBI.

Provided that the funds collected by various branches of the bank or other banks for the issue and held pending finalisation of allotment of the additional Tier 1 preference shares shall have to be taken into account for the purpose of calculation of reserve requirements.

- (2) Net income tax provision,
- (3) Amount received from Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation (DICGC) towards claims and held by the bank pending adjustments thereof,
- (4) Amount received from Export Credit Guarantee Corporation (ECGC) by invoking the guarantee,
- (5) Amount received from an insurance company on ad-hoc settlement of claims pending judgment of the Court,
- (6) Amount received from the Court Receiver,
- (7) The liabilities arising on account of utilisation of limits under Bankers' Acceptance Facility (BAF),
- (8) Subsidy released by NABARD under Investment Subsidy Scheme for Construction / Renovation / Expansion of Rural Godowns,
- (9) Subsidy released by Central / State Government which is kept in zero percent fixed deposit receipt (FDR) account, if the terms / conditions prescribed in this regard by the Government and the accounting / operating treatment given to zero per cent FDR account are same as that of zero per cent Subsidy Reserve Fund account,
- (10) Net unrealised gain / loss arising from derivatives transaction under trading portfolio,
- (11) Income flows received in advance such as annual fees and other charges which are not refundable,
- (12) Bill rediscounted by a bank with eligible financial institutions as approved by the RBI, and
- (13) Amount received by the eligible banks from National Credit Guarantee Trustee

Company Limited (NCGTC) by invoking the guarantee towards claims and pending adjustments thereof.

G. Exempted Categories

20. Scheduled Banks are exempted from maintaining CRR on the following liabilities:

(1) Net of liabilities to the banking system from the assets with the banking system defined in Section 42 (1) (d) of the RBI Act, 1934 as under:

(i) Liabilities to the banking system as computed under clause (d) of explanation to section 42(1) of the RBI Act, 1934.

36 A. ⁶The maintenance of CRR and SLR during the fortnight December 16-31, 2025 and the first fortnight of January 2026 (i.e., January 1-15, 2026) is to be done by the banks, based on the Net Demand and Time Liabilities (NDTL) as on November 28, 2025 and December 15, 2025, respectively. From the subsequent fortnights starting from January 16, 2026, the maintenance shall be done, as presently applicable, i.e., based on the NDTL as on the last day of the second preceding fortnight.

36 B. ⁷During the transition period of three days i.e., December 13-15, 2025, the maintenance of CRR and SLR is to be done by the banks, based on the Net Demand and Time Liabilities (NDTL) as on November 28, 2025. Further, the banks shall maintain minimum CRR of not less than hundred per cent of the required CRR during the transition period. The banks shall also submit Form A return for December 12, 2025, as per extant reporting structure. Further, the banks are advised to submit Form VIII return of December 2025 on CIMS portal, both with old and new return codes

B. Return in Form VIII (SLR)

37. Every PB shall submit to the Reserve Bank before 20th day of every month, a Return in Form VIII (Annex II) showing the amount of SLR held on last day of each fortnight during the immediate preceding month with particulars of their DTL in India held on such day or if any such day is a public holiday under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, at the close of business on the preceding working day.

38. Every scheduled bank shall also submit a statement as Annex to Form VIII Return giving daily position of (a) assets held for the purpose of compliance with SLR, (b) excess cash balances maintained by them with RBI in the prescribed format, and (c) mode of valuation of securities.

39. The Statutory Auditors shall verify and certify that all items of outside liabilities, as per the bank's books had been duly compiled by the bank and correctly reflected under

Chapter VI - Penalties

A. Penalties for default in CRR Maintenance

40. Every bank is liable to pay to the Reserve Bank, penal interest as mentioned below, if the daily balance of cash reserve (CRR) held by the bank during any fortnight is below the minimum prescribed by or under these Directions.

(1) Penal interest shall be recovered from PBs in the event of shortfall in maintenance of prescribed CRR on a daily basis for that day at the rate of three percent per annum above the Bank Rate on the amount by which the amount actually maintained falls short of the prescribed minimum on that day and if the shortfall continues on the next succeeding day/s, penal interest shall be recovered at the rate of five per cent per annum above the Bank Rate.

(2) In cases of shortfall in maintenance of CRR on average basis during a fortnight, penal interest will be recovered as envisaged in sub-section (3) of Section 42 of Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

41. Banks are required to furnish the particulars such as date, amount, percentage, reason for default in maintenance of requisite CRR and also action taken to avoid recurrence of such default.

42. Under the provisions of Section 42(3A) of the RBI Act, 1934, penal interest at the increased rate of five percent above the Bank Rate become payable and if the default still continues during the next succeeding fortnight,

(1) Every Director, Manager or Secretary of the PB who is knowingly and willfully a party to the default, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ₹500 and with a further fine which may extend to ₹500 for each subsequent fortnight during which default continues.

(2) The Reserve Bank may prohibit a PB from receiving any fresh deposit after the said fortnight, and if default is made by the bank in complying with the prohibition referred to in this clause, every director and officer of the bank who is knowingly and willfully a party to such default or who through negligence or otherwise contributes to such default shall in respect of each such default be punishable with fine which may extend to ₹500 and with a further fine which may extend to ₹500 for each day after the first, on which a deposit received in contravention of such prohibition is retained by the scheduled bank.

43. Failure to submit the Return/late submission of the Return shall attract the provisions of Section 42(4) of RBI Act, 1934 and banks are liable for imposition of penalties as indicated therein.

B. Penalties for default in SLR Maintenance

44. On the failure of the bank to maintain as on any day, the amount of SLR required to be maintained by a bank, the bank shall be liable to pay to the Reserve Bank in respect of that default, the penal interest as envisaged under Section 24 of the BR Act, 1949.

45. Failure to submit the prescribed return in time will attract the provisions of Section 46(4) of the Act ibid.

46. Where it is observed that banks are persistently defaulting despite instructions and repeated advice, the Reserve Bank in addition to levy of penalty on such defaulting banks, may be constrained to consider cancelling the licence in case of licensed banks. The banks should, therefore, in their own interest ensure maintenance of statutory liquidity ratio at prescribed rates and be very prompt in submission of required Return to Regional Office concerned of Reserve Bank.

Disclaimer: It is hereby advised that mere inclusion of any item in the above Master Direction should not be construed as a permission to undertake all such activities by a banking entity.

Chapter VII - Repeal And Other Provisions

A. Repeal and saving

47. With the issue of these Directions, the existing Directions, instructions, and guidelines relating to Cash Reserve Ratio and Statutory Liquidity Ratio as applicable to Payments Banks, as communicated vide circular DOR.RRC.REC.302/33-01-010/2025-26 dated November 28, 2025. The Directions, instructions and guidelines repealed prior to the issuance of these Directions shall continue to remain repealed.

48. Notwithstanding such repeal, any action taken or purported to have been taken, or initiated under the repealed Directions, instructions, or guidelines shall continue to be governed by the provisions thereof. All approvals or acknowledgments granted under these repealed lists shall be deemed as governed by these Directions. Further, the repeal of these directions, instructions, or guidelines shall not in any way prejudicially affect:

- (i) any right, obligation or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred thereunder;
- (ii) any, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any contravention committed thereunder;
- (iii) any investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceedings or remedy may be instituted, continued, or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if those directions, instructions, or guidelines had not been repealed.

B. Application of other laws not barred

49. The provisions of these Directions shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of the provisions of any other laws, rules, regulations, or directions, for the time being in force

C. Interpretations

50. For the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of these Directions or in order to remove any difficulties in the application or interpretation of the provisions of these Directions, the RBI may, if it considers necessary, issue necessary clarifications in respect of any matter covered herein and the interpretation of any provision of these Directions given by the RBI shall be final and binding.
