Deputy General Manager of SBI, and Harshal Chitalikar, District Manager of RBI Nagpur. Branch heads from all banks in Karanja Lad also attended the event.

More than 200 citizens from various gram panchayats participated with great enthusiasm. Addressing the gathering, Sachin V. Shende urged people to update their KYC details either at such camps or at bank branches in order to avail themselves of all government schemes. He also appealed to citizens to enrol in the Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana and Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana for financial protection. Anjana Shyamnath guided the audience on the role of the RBI Ombudsman, while Shashi Ranjan explained the importance of the Atal Pension Yojana and encouraged young people to benefit from it. Yashveer Kumar, District Lead Bank Manager, informed the gathering that Washim district had secured first place in Maharashtra under the Atal Pension Yojana among aspirational districts. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by Ashish Kumar Singh, who appreciated the cooperation of all dignitaries, bank officials, and citizens. People were once again requested to complete their KYC at the nearest branch or at upcoming camps in order to take full advantage of government schemes.
