

Financial inclusion saturation campaign held at Querim

B&C| NT

As part of a three-month financial inclusion saturation campaign, a camp was conducted at Querim village Panchayat, Ponda taluka on August 11, for Jansuraksha schemes such as PMJDY, PMJJBY, PMSBY, APY and re-verification of KYC. MLA Priol, Govind Gaude, inaugurated the camp in the presence of RBI, executive director, Mumbai, Arnab Kumar Chowdhury, RBI, Goa, regional director Prabhakar Jha, NABARD, Goa, general manager Sandeep Dharkar, SBI, DGM Shailendra Mishra, SBI (SLBC), AGM, Carlos Rodrigues, IOB, regional head Kunal Singh, Goa State Cooperative Bank, MD, Ananat Chodankar, and senior officials of RBI and banks.

The camp appraised

The 3-month financial inclusion saturation camp appraised villagers of government schemes.

villagers of various schemes and the importance of cyber security to prevent digital frauds. Participants were made aware of customer grievance cell in the banks.

"The RBI plays an important role in promoting financial inclusion at the grassroot level. Customers must comply with KYC and re-KYC for receiving seamless delivery of banking services. It will also help them in receiving the DBT transfers online," said Chowdhury. Speaking on the occasion Gaude appreciated the importance of timely KYC updation and urged the villagers to opt for the insurance and pension schemes of the government.

There was an overwhelming response from the villagers, as many villagers enrolled for the above schemes and completed their re-KYC. The camp concluded with the Vote of Thanks by Shri Shailendra Mishra, DGM SBI.